

Latin Teacher

Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, an independent Catholic college preparatory high school in the Holy Cross Tradition, is seeking a Latin teacher to instruct students at various academic levels. The chosen candidate will be hired to begin employment at Cathedral during the 2017-2018 school year. If interested, download the application from Cathedral's website at www.gocathedral.com. Please submit all applications with a cover letter, resume, and collegiate transcripts to Dennis Thomas, Vice Principal for Academics at dthomas@gocathedral.com.

Applications are being reviewed now, and the position will remain posted until filled.

Job Summary

The successful candidate will have extensive knowledge of Latin content as well as experience in teaching at the High School level is preferred. This position is an integral part of Cathedral High School's World Language Program and will require the candidate to create a welcoming and engaging classroom environment for all students.

Desired Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in the specific content area
- Deep and thorough knowledge of the subject matter
- Experience teaching Latin preferred
- Thorough understanding of the literature and history of the late Roman Republic
- Experience using online resources and other technologies to enhance language learning
- Valid Indiana Teaching License preferred

Duties & Responsibilities

- Teach 5 sections of language classes
- Work directly with language teachers as part of a language PLC
- Contribute to the larger school community through coaching or sponsoring other extracurricular programs

For more information on the Latin Teacher position, please visit www.gocathedral.com to view the full job description and application.