

2016 Budget Guide

The education and resources available at the Indiana Non-Public Education Conference will ensure the success of your students and the continued success of your non-public school. Plan your 2016 school calendar around the Indiana Non-Public Education Conference, Thursday and Friday, September 15-16 at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis! To help you save money and assist you in planning for the upcoming conference, this Budget Guide offers valuable information on expenses.

As you make plans to attend INPEC 2016 we encourage you to explore using any dollars (including regular Title and IDEA funding) allotted to your school for professional development to cover your teachers' registration fees. Please keep this in mind during any consultation meetings that you may have with your local school corporation. If you have questions about the use of Federal or State dollars contact the INPEA office at 317-236-7329.
