

Who is NQE: The Network for Quality Education (NQE) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. We exist to support individual schools, particularly autonomous schools, and their leaders. We seek to provide supports that will increase the quality of the schools we work with. NQE's President is Betsy Wiley, who also leads NQE's partner organizations, Hoosiers for Quality Education (HQE) and the Institute for Quality Education (IQE). Marcie Brown Carter is the Director of NQE, running its daily operations. Rob Love is NQE's Director of School Services, managing and growing the menu of services offered to NQE schools.

What You Can Expect from Working with NQE:

Programs

- In-person meetings/webinars on topics that we hear are of interest to non-public school leaders
- NQE staff serve as your helpdesk for all kinds of issues
- If your school is considering replication or expansion, NQE would like to help support those efforts

Services- Available for use at your discretion

- IAESC E-procurement Service, online purchasing and personalized customer service
- IFF Real Estate Services and web-based information about Indianapolis school landscape and performance
- Catapult Learning, NQE has partnered with INPEA to offer Catapult Learning services for academically struggling schools.
- School Improvement, The 8-Step Process is a proven model for school improvement
- Technology Services, a broad range of technology-related services from FiveStar Technology Solutions
- Standard for Success, employee evaluation solutions
- Vimme Learning, cumulative testing with real-time reporting

We plan to aggressively grow our menu of services in the 2016-17 school year based on the stated needs of the schools we work with. Please contact Rob.love@n4qed with ideas for services NQE should investigate.

There is no fee to work with NQE. We have philanthropic support that allows us to work with the non-public school community. If your school chooses to utilize any NQE services, your school will pay that service provider directly.

If you have questions or ideas on how NQE can serve your school, please contact Marcie at Marcie.browncarter@n4qed.org.
